Social Emotional Learning – YOU Matter!

Early Childhood is a time when students begin to develop their social emotional skills. The Early Childhood counselor serves as a first line of defense in identifying and addressing student social/emotional needs within the school setting. This is integral to the total educational program as a whole. In Early Childhood students begin to develop a self-concept and feelings of competence and confidence in their learning. The Early Childhood Counseling program provides education, prevention and intervention of services which are integrated into all aspects of children's lives. Early identification and intervention of children's personal and social needs is essential to serving as a foundation for future success.

The Early Childhood counselor has weekly counseling lessons with each class promoting Social Emotional Learning via the Second Step Program. This universal, classroom-based program is designed to increase students school success and decrease problem behaviors by promoting social emotional competence and self –regulation. It teaches skills that strengthen student's ability to learn, have empathy, manage emotions and solve problems. In this way students are equipped to create a safer more respectful learning environment that promotes school success for all. The Early Childhood counselor is bound by the rules of confidentiality and as such all matters dealt with by the counselor will remain strictly confidential.
